Fees

The Blowing Rock Historical Society is a non-profit, volunteer organization, and we collect fees from artists. We use the money we raise from this event in three ways:

1. First, we cover the cost incurred for conducting this program. The bulk of our cost is marketing and promotion of the event.
2. Half of any net proceeds (money raised minus our expenses for the program) is donated to a worthy high country cause such as improvement projects at Moses H. Cone park.
3. The remainder of any net proceeds are used by the Blowing Rock Historical Society for our own projects like improvements to Edgewood Cottage or funding historical research about Blowing Rock.

Fees you agree to pay...

- $85 Participation fee for all selected first time (non-alumni) artists.
- 25% donation to the Blowing Rock Historical Society for your total sales (excluding taxes) made during your show.
